When It Snows in September.

When it snows in September, And is cold as November, Then, we sigh for the warm sweet days of spring; And our thoughts go swiftly flying Where we too would fain be flying, To the Southland, where the mocking bird doth sing.

When it snows in September, And is more like December, Then, it is time to look up the weather folk; And to tell them very plainly That they're acting quite insanely, And that, we, don't like one bit, their little joke.

Myrtle Aldrich.

Warner-Wright

The home of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Warner was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Thursday evening of last week when their son, Clayton Charles, of Gary, Ind., was united in marriage to Cora Mildred, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Wright. The bride wore cream tulle and carried bride roses. The wedding party entered the parlor to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march played by S. Ernestine Willson, and stood under an arch of evergreens and asters where the ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Warner. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Only members of the immediate families were present. After the ceremony the guests partook of wedding cake and ice cream. Mr. and Mrs. Warner left on an early train for their home in Gary, Ind., accompanied by the best wishes of their many friends. Mr. Warner is a graduate of Barton academy, '07, and Bliss Electrical school of Washington, D. C. The bride, one of Barton's popular young ladies, is a graduate of Barton academy, '07, and has been well known as a clerk in the local post-office. They were the recipients of many and beautiful gifts.

Willoughby District S. S. Aas's Meeting.

The meeting of the Willoughby District Sunday School association was held in the Methodist church at Glover Tuesday. The day was all that could be desired. Nearly one hundred were present in the afternoon and in the evening there was a crowded house. A fine program was prepared and excellent addresses were made. The feature of the afternoon session was the suggestive, practical and finely prepared talk of Mrs. Ware of Coventry on the work of the superintendent. Glover band assisted in the evening service, playing several very fine selections. The solo by Mrs. Roy Christie and the singing by the young people were greatly enjoyed. The evening addresses by Rev. W. A. Warner and Rev. C. E. Garvin were listened to with great interest. S. T. Vance, the president of the association, presided at all the sessions.

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, we are called at this harvest time of the year to consider in convention the "fields already white for the harvest," the need and opportunity for Sabbath school work in the communities from which we are gathered, and the methods and experiences which may help us as workers in God's harvest field. Also our need of consecration to and dependence upon our Lord of the harvest.

Resolved, first, That we enter upon our duties in the months to come thankful both that we have a work we can do for God and that he has bestowed upon us strength to do it. Second, That in view of all the effort our association officers, our speakers of the day, and our most hospitable friends of Glover have made to render this convention a success we will return to our fields of labor with a spirit of enthusiastic service like theirs that we may reap and glean the harvest of God with them, that we will sow the seed with hope and faith and that we will pray that we may all be gathered as precious sheaves into His garner.

Third, That we extend our thanks to the people of Glover for their kind invitation and for their liberality in entertaining us; to the speakers for their inspiring words, to the officers of the association for their faithfulness and to all others who have assisted to make this convention so helpful to us all. Bertha L. Wright, Jennie Cutler, Edna Dutton, Committee.

Royal Arch Masons Go to Island Pond.

Officers of Keystone Chapter, No. 16 R. A. M. expect to go to Island Pond this week Friday evening to confer the R. A. degree on several candidates. The companions who made the trip last spring will remember the loyal hospitality of the Island Pond companions and it is hoped a large number will be able to go this time. The trip will be made by automobile, returning Saturday morning.

LOWELL GRANGE FAIR.

Lowell grange second annual fair held last week on the evenings of Sept. 27 and 28 was a success in every way. The rain of the night prevented some from attending but a good house was secured, which shows the interest taken in this fair by the public. A program of music, singing and speaking by the school children of the several districts in town was followed by addresses by Aaron Grout of Newport and Senator Taplin of Orleans. Although it was rainy and dark it did not dampen the good humor of the speaker of the evening. On the part of the Lowell grange and citizens of this town, we wish to thank them for their effort in making this fair a success. In the prize speaking contest the three successful ones were Howard Barney 1st; Rachel Brahana 2nd; Willis Rouse 3rd. Much credit is due the teachers of the several schools for their work in training the children for this contest. There were ten who tried for the prize in the girls' sewing contest. Mrs. Herbert Knight gave the prize in this contest, but owing to the fact that all did so well, a prize was given each of the girls. A prize was given by W. A. Blake for the best essay on farming, by a boy under the age of 14. Only two essays were entered in this contest. Stanford Gelo received first prize and Sanford Knight second. A song by Miss Marjorie Sinclair and piano solos by Miss Elsie Parker and Miss Mildred Greenwood completed the program for the first evening, after which ice cream was served and a social hour was spent in looking over the many and varied exhibits displayed. On the night of the 28th, a drama was given, "The Black Helper." It was plainly seen that the public was expecting something, for the capacity of the M. W. A. hall was soon taxed to its limit and by the applause it was plain that they were not disappointed. The success of the second night was due to those who took part in this play and made it a success. One of the new features of this fair was the awarding of cash prizes on all exhibits. There were seven departments of farm products, vegetables, grain, corn, canned goods, apples, maple syrup and sugar, dairy butter and fruit. The cash prizes awarded on each of the above were first $1; second, 60 cents; third, 40 cents. The prizes as awarded in each display were as follows, vegetables, W. A. Blake 1st, Preston Sheltra 2nd, Freeman Farman 3rd; grain, Edgar Adams 1st, Howard England 2nd, Frank Barney 3rd; corn, Edgar Adams 1st, Freeman Farman 2nd, David Burgess 3rd; canned goods, Mrs. Edgar Adams 1st, Mrs. Abel Sawyer 2nd, Mrs. Della LaClair 3rd; maple syrup and sugar, Mrs. A. E. Sawyer 1st, Arthur Weed 2nd, Mrs. Dell Austin 3rd; dairy butter, Mrs. Charles Kelley 1st, Mrs. Arthur Gelo 2nd; fruit, W. A. Blake 1st, Frank Barney 2nd, Wallace Farman 3rd. A very fine display of potatoes was shown by John Young. The ladies' department exhibited a large display of needlework. There were three prizes awarded on each subject as follows: Embroidery, Mrs. Harmon Covey 1st, May Sawyer 2nd, Mrs. H. A. Parker 3rd; sofa pillows, Mrs. L. O. Sanborn 1st, May Sawyer 2nd, Mrs. M. Winchester 3rd; rugs, Mrs. W. A. Blake 1st, Mrs. Fred Sheltra 2nd; quilts, Mrs. H. A. Knights 1st, Mrs. Rock Snider 2nd, Mrs. W. A. Blake 3rd; burned work, Mrs. L. O. Sanborn 1st, Miss Annie Carter 2nd, M. W. Alexander 3rd; Paintings, Mrs. Ella Curtis 1st, Mrs. Carroll Powers 2nd, Mrs. Emma M. Ostrout 3rd; crochet, May Sawyer 1st, Mrs. L. O. Sanborn 2nd, Mamie Snider 3rd; drawn work, Mrs. Harmon Covey 1st, Blanch Barton 2nd, Mrs. Charles Kelley 3rd; buttoning, Mrs. L. O. Sanborn 1st, Mrs. Alice Sheehan 2nd, Harriet Sinclair 3rd. A very unique string of beads was displayed by Mrs. Edgar LaClair, which was made from rose buds from California. Mrs. Dell Austin had a very fine display of evaporated apple. The floral display was of cut and potted flowers. Prizes on the above were as follows, 1st 50c; 2nd 30c; 3rd 20c. Mrs. Charles Kelley 1st, Mrs. Della LaClair 2nd, Mrs. Harriet Sinclair 3rd. Lowell grange wishes to thank the brothers and sisters of this grange and neighboring granges and the public at large for their most cordial support in making this fair a success.

Ann-uncement.

To the People of Orleans County: The time draws near when candidates for the various offices in Orleans county will be discussed and I take this time and opportunity to announce that I shall be a candidate for the office of State's Attorney.

Should I be looked upon with favor by the majority and be elected I shall use every effort to administer the affairs of that office in an honest, fair and intelligent manner with equal justice to all and with special favors to none.

It had not been my intention to make an announcement thus early, but as other candidates are openly in the field I consider it best to speak now that there may be no misunderstanding.

Respectfully,
Harry A. Black.

Good News for Barton.

A. P. Underwood of the Peerless Manufacturing company announces an increase of business for the Barton factory. The Newport, (N. H.) Champion, published in the town where the head factory is located, says: "The Peerless Manufacturing company is about to discontinue its factory at Greenfield, Mass. This will mean a material increase in the output of the Barton factory, and a possible increase in the output of the Newport factory. There are several reasons for this change. Among them is the close proximity of the Greenfield factory to the railroad yard, in which shifting is constantly going on, with the prevailing wind in the direction of the factory, which makes it impracticable to work on white material by reason of dirt. The scarcity of help and existing labor laws in Massachusetts are also contributing factors. Elwin N. Johnson, who has been superintendent of the Greenfield factory, will remove to Newport and become associated with the Newport factory. This undoubtedly means much more work for the local factory and Mr. Underwood is now looking for more help.

Pomona Grange Meeting.

Prospect Pomona grange met at Barton Thursday, Sept. 28th, with about 60 members present. There were four applications for the fifth degree and the obligations were given by the Master. At noon the members went to the Methodist church for dinner, after which they returned to the hall and a short business meeting was held. The lecturer gave a few remarks, after which music was rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Hastings. Each member was called upon to tell a short story or repeat some saying, most every one present responded. A reading was given by Mrs. Fred May, song by Mrs. Ora Miles, recitation by James Young, and a solo by Mrs. Adams. Short talks were given on the eight-hour day system for the farmer by Mr. Willey, Mr. Alexander, Mr. Foster, Mr. Crandall, and George Crandall. The remainder of the program consisted of readings, music and a short talk by Mr. Wilson of Manchester. A vote of thanks was given Crystal Lake grange for their kind hospitality. The next meeting will be held at Brownington sometime in December.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Perley are in Boston and vicinity visiting friends and buying winter goods. Miss Ina Paige will be in the store during their absence.

Miss Viva Potter was quite seriously burned one day last week when Mrs. Potter accidentally spilled some boiling water on her, burning her face and chest.

The ladies of the Congregational church will meet at the vestry next Wednesday for a social afternoon, and supper will be served at 6 o'clock, to which all are invited.

F. B. Lang is at the Massachusetts State fair this week with Johnnie Medium. Mrs. Lang goes the last of this week to visit relatives in Nashua and Cambridge and will later join Mr. Lang.

G. M. Cutting and Company now have ready for inspection a carefully selected line of ready-to-wear and dress hats. The season's opening will occur Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 10, 11.

E. W. Barron has been appointed by Gov. Mead one of the delegates from Vermont to the convention of the Lakes to the Gulf Deeper Waterways association to be held at Chicago Oct. 12, 13 and 14th.

H. G. Perley has rented the store in the Phillips block recently vacated by F. C. Browning and will move his stock of novelty goods there about November 1. This will give Mr. Perley much needed additional room.

The following letters remain uncalled for at the post-office. Please say advertised when calling for these letters. Miss Cora E. Borgstrom, Alphonse Houle, Mrs. Ella F. Moore, Miss Nellie Richardson, Clement Roger, Leon St. Sauveur.

W. H. Drant of Montgomery, N. Y., has rented the H. F. Pillsbury property on Park street, through the King & Nelson company. Mr. Drant's family have arrived. The barn has been repaired some and several fine horses will be here in a few days.

The administration of the Sacrament of confirmation was given to 131 at St. Paul's church on Sunday. Sixty of the number were girls. Rt. Rev. Rice, D. D., of Burlington had charge of the ceremonies. Ten priests from the nearby towns were present and assisted.

The concert and ball given last evening for the benefit of the championship ball team was well attended.

A WESTERN LETTER.

Mr. Editor:— Several have requested me to write about my trip here and the country around here, Missouri in the Ozark Mountains.

I left Barton at 5 p. m., Sept. 20, and arrived in Montreal at 9 p. m., left Montreal at 10 p. m. for Detroit by Toronto, arrived in Toronto at 6 a. m. From there the country is very level and looks like a good farming country, large fields of corn had been partly cut and were in the stack. There was still a lot of it to cut, which had not been touched with the frost. The barns were small and the average barn in Vermont would cover ten or twelve of these. There were large straw stacks around these barns larger than the barns themselves. The houses were small and very low.

At Detroit the cars were run on a boat to cross the St. Clair river. There were ten cars on the train, and two tracks on the boat. The boat run down the river for some two miles in crossing to a railroad wharf on the American side. The water in the river was very muddy and the river is deep so that very large steamers were running on it. Detroit is a fine city and I would have liked to stay there longer. Here there are two large depots, C. P. R. and Wash and the Grand Trunk. It is 516 miles from Detroit to Montreal and from Detroit to St. Louis it is 488 miles. We left Detroit over the Wash and through Illinois. Here we

Orleans County Politics.

Editor of the Monitor,

I see that some of those politicians up to Newport are already starting fires under the Orleans County political caldron and it looks as though he pot would soon be boiling merrily. Rufus Spear, the Clerk of the Public Service Commission, writes me that he wants to be Judge of Probate and I got a letter this morning from Aaron Grout saying he wants to be State's Attorney, and I expect that before long I will be getting a letter every day from some one of these fellows at Newport saying that they want one or more of all the County offices.

Now Mr. Editor they say that a lot of fellows called Stand Patters have been running the Republican Party of this county for a good many years and that now some fellows called Insurgents are thinking that things ought to be changed a little.

It seems to me that ever since I commenced to vote those fellows at Newport have been the Stand Patters of Orleans County Politics. I know I have voted at every election for forty years and it seems to me that every man on the republican ticket has been from Newport.

Now I have been thinking the matter over and I am of the opinion we ought to have a few insurgents in this County. We have got a lot of good men in this County who don't live in Newport as well qualified to fill office as though Newport was their legal residence. I don't know whether they are so accustomed to the old run of affairs that they will be afraid to come out and let the voters of this county elect them to some of the offices, but it seems to me that it is pretty easy for them to overcome up to these Newport office-seekers. I think what we ought to do is to wait until we know every one who is going to be a candidate for office and then if there is some good man who does not live in Newport turn in and elect him.

I don't know if you will consider it worth while to print this letter, Mr. Editor, but if you do, I may have something more to say on this subject in the future.

Yours truly,
Insurgent.
Westmore, Vt., Oct. 2, 1911.

The musical program was excellent, every number was enjoyed. The baseball management hereby extend appreciative thanks to those who gave so liberally of their time and talent.

Mrs. Wm. Colliston has her sister, Mrs. Martha Cheever, from Stacey, Montana, as guest for a few days, also her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Shye. Mrs. White, who has spent the summer with her sister, Mrs. Colliston, leaves Thursday for her home in Springfield, Mass.

The following officers were elected by the L. T. L. which met at the schoolhouse Thursday, Sept. 28: President, Mary Wilkinson; vice president, Ruth Gleason; recording secretary, Marjorie Thompson; corresponding secretary, Glenn Comstock; treasurer, Bernard Ryan.

A party of six, consisting of Mrs. Carroll Webster, Miss Marion Redfield, Ray Underwood and Mr. and Mrs. Lang and Slayton, climbed Camel's Hump one day last week. The party stopped at Mrs. Webster's home in Waterbury Center over night, starting for North Duxbury in the morning. The climb was three miles long and dinner was served in tents on the top of the mountain. On the return home the party stopped at Morrisville.

The annual Rummage sale of the Ladies' society of the Congregational church, will be held in the vestry Wednesday, Oct. 11 from 9 o'clock in the morning continuing until 10 p. m. The Ladies' Aid society will serve a chicken pie supper in the vestry from 6 o'clock until all are served the same evening.

Watches Moving Fast.

Well, boys how do you like your watch? A number have said they were greatly surprised to get so nice a timepiece for so little work. Some boys have earned one after school and others have done it easily on a Saturday. We have had to send for more watches already and will surely have a watch for every boy and girl who sends in the required number of subscriptions.

The girls are busy also. A number are after those fine gold watches. Well, we don't blame them any after examining the watch thoroughly. It is worth every bit of effort necessary to secure 16 subscriptions. We are also getting orders for the pens. We have not had room each week to run the cuts and descriptions of these pens and watches and so you had better cut these ads out and save them to refer to. That ladies' pen is a fine one. We have had to send for more of these too. Better get busy while the opportunity lasts.

We have decided to let two six months' subscriptions count as one yearly. This ought to make it easier for you. Don't be afraid to ask everyone to take the Monitor. There may be some who do not take it now. Ask them. They will probably take it for six months anyway.

Write us how you got your subscriptions. We may have room to publish some of your letters. And we would awfully like to know how you like your premium after you get it. The editor would like to hear from you, boys and girls. Come in and see the pens and watches if you can.

Methodist Episcopal Church Notes.

The Odd Girls will give a hash supper in the church dining room next Friday night. Everybody is invited.

The subject of Mr. Dukeshire's sermon next Sunday evening is "Why Gold Is Used for Paving the Streets of Heaven."

Rev. W. B. Dukeshire went to Lyndonville Wednesday to explain the Guild method of work to the representatives of the Methodists of that place.

high school Friday. He addressed the students in a pleasing and instructive manner on the necessity of a higher education. In speaking of the school Prof. McFarland stated that the work of the school attracted his attention and that the spirit of the pupil and teacher in their work in the schools was congenial. It is Prof. McFarland's endeavor to give assistance to school officials and extend the usefulness of the college throughout the state.

The drama "Our Minister" presented by a cast of characters from the Empire lyceum bureau of Syracuse, N. Y., headed by Clifton Mallory, Friday evening in Seaver's hall, was one of the best pieces of acting ever seen in Barton. Owing to the illness of one member of the company "Our Minister" was substituted for "David Garrick" which was billed to be played. Mr. Mallory certainly played his part of the minister in fine style as did Ruth Weston and Beth Marlowe in their roles. To state that the play was one of the best ever staged in Barton is speaking of the presentation none too highly and it was unfortunate that there were not more present. Undoubtedly the severe storm of the day and evening kept many people from going.
